1. Applicant's arguments, in the amendment filed 10/25/04, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-11 under 102 and 103 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

3. None of the cited references alone or in combination teach the claimed "front side display means, which is arranged in front of said variable display means and through which said plurality of patterns of said variable display means can be seen, wherein said front display means is configured as a stack of a plurality of panel-shaped displays" as recited in claim 1.

None of the cited references alone or in combination teach the claimed "front said display device being positioned in front of the at least one variable display device such that the gaming machine has a mode to allow the still image to be seen through said front side display device; wherein said front display device comprised a first display and a second display panel being positioned between said first display device and the at least one variable display device such that the gaming machine has a mode to allow the still images to be seen through said first display panel and said second display panel; and wherein said first display panel and said second display panel are capable of showing images which are dependent on each other" as recited in claim 5.

Furthermore, none of the cited reference alone or in combination teach the claimed "wherein said first display panel and said second display panel are capable of showing images which are independent from each other" as recited in claim 21.

4. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
